Coach Ken Carter: September 23 at Convention 2022 in Orlando!

Ken Carter was the real-life inspiration for the 2005 hit movie "Coach Carter," starring actor Samuel L. Jackson.

Carter garnered national headlines when he locked his undefeated, state playoff, high-school basketball team out of the gym and forced them to hit the books, sending a powerful message: stop counting on athletic potential as the only ticket out of a tough inner-city life.

Coach's tough love and mentorship has helped thousands of players and students to succeed in life. Presently, Coach is a highly sought-after success speaker, life coach, philanthropist, and businessman.

Coach Carter's strategy for winning in life range from learning about the quality of one's character to the love of learning as well as the importance of self-discipline and spirituality. Coach Carter takes you through his own life experiences. His fundamental belief is that you must start with respect for others, your community, and your environment before you can attain your own goals, both personally and professionally.

An acclaimed author, Coach Carter has written several best-selling books, including "Yes, Ma'am, No Sir: 12 essential steps for success in life" and "Coach Carter: My Life."

PACB is delighted to present Coach Carter with the generous support of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Pittsburgh!

The Secret of How David Beats Goliath

*Presented by Robb Rempel
EVP, Client Services
Haberfeld
Lincoln, NE

By 2013 44% of all US consumers claimed their community financial institution was their primary transactional relationship…where they bank! Today only 24% of all US consumers claim that a community financial institution is where they bank, while the six largest banks in the US own 60% of the primary relationships. Do you as a community financial institution know how to win market share back? Do you know where and how to find the most likely consumers when they are finally ready to change financial institutions? There is a pipeline of opportunity, but most community banks don't know where to start. Join us as we explore specific strategies to grow your community bank.

Economic Update for Community Banks

*Presented by Craig Dismuke
Economist
Vining Sparks
Memphis, TN

The U.S. economy's recovery from the pandemic has resulted in significant imbalances in supply and demand at almost every level of the economy. These imbalances have yielded the hottest inflation in 40 years which now, along with the requisite response from monetary policymakers, threatens the sustainability of the economic expansion. In this presentation, we will discuss the current inflation environment, the Fed's response, the growing risks to economic stability, and the implications for interest rates.

12:45 - 1:45 p.m. CONCURRENT SESSIONS

SESSION I: Abstract for Crypto 101

Scott Green*, Manager, Product Innovation*
SHAZAM Network
Johnston, IA

With an all-time high interest in cryptocurrency, we review the origins of digital assets to understand the key innovations and philosophies driving the decentralized finance movement. We also discuss other emerging types of digital assets, including stablecoins and central bank digital currencies. The session provides a context to understand the disruptive opportunities and risks presented by decentralized finance.

SESSION II: Bond Investing in 2022: What's Changed?

James (Jim) Reber
President & CEO, ICBA Securities
Memphis, TN

Community Bankers have had a lot to deal with in the last 24 months, and many times the investment portfolio has been on autopilot. Perhaps unbeknown to even the bank, the supply of various bond has grown and shrunk in the last five years, which in turn has affected spreads and yields. The Fed's actions and words also will affect portfolio performance this year. WE will look at what community banks have purchased in the last two years, discuss the supply/demand dynamics of some popular investment sectors, and suggest some newly arrived alternatives.

SESSION III: Evolving Your Bank Branch Strategy

Jim Caliendo
President & CEO, PW Campbell
Pittsburgh, PA

Number and location are no longer the only key drivers of your retail branch strategy, there is much more to consider today. New approaches must be guided by thorough market review and demographic analysis, along with rightsizing your network by shifting size, branch type, design, and product offering. During this session we will review a comprehensive process that provides strategies for reducing costs and increasing performance by:

- allowing seamless digital-to-branch transitions
- implementing effective in-branch technology
- enhancing brand awareness and transforming the branch into a marketing tool
- supporting an employee's ability to provide an omnichannel occurrence
- creating an environment for education and relationship building
- creating a memorable customer experience
- providing ideas to remove functional obsolescence

1:50 - 2:50 p.m. CONCURRENT SESSIONS

SESSION I: Will Fintechs Help or Hurt My Bank?

Danny Henderson
EVP Fintech Bank Integration
Banc Card of America, Inc.
Jefferson, IN

Attend this session to see how some Fintech companies could be siphoning deposits, loans and even NII from your bank. Understanding this landscape and what are the red flags that will help you determine whom you want to partner with. Collaborators can help grow your bank versus disintermediation. What are the top products and services I need to help my clients now and, in the years to come?

SESSION II: The Human Resourcer's Apprentice

Lindsey Snavely & John Martin
Attorneys
Pillar + Aught
Harrisburg, PA

Lawyers, as a rule, can ruin pretty much anything. Disney movies are no exception! Taking a When in Rome stance, this session will feature clips from a variety of classic and new Disney movies to address and explore the myriad employment law issues they create—particularly in today's "post-woke" society. Examples of stereotyping and unconscious (or conscious) bias abound in Zootopia, we can learn a lot about the interactive process and how to approach ADA issues from Finding Nemo (and Dory, too!), and don't get us started on the topics of harassment and consent (looking at you, Sleeping Beauty). Take that Sorcerer's Apprentice hat off and revisit some of your favorite Disney movies with your HR hat on!

SESSION III: Model Validation - Regulatory Requirements and Components

Ivan Cilik
Partner, CPA
Baker Tilly US, LLP
Philadelphia, PA

As dependency on automated model systems/software (e.g. BSA/AML, ALM, CECL) is ever increasing and resources must be efficiently utilized, the need for strong system validation and calibration has never been more important. Financial Service processes (e.g. BSA/AML, ALM, etc.) are becoming increasingly reliant on automated models in: detecting suspicious activity (BSA/AML), measuring risk and supporting key business decisions (ALM) and monitoring required allowances (CECL). Over the past year, one of the most cited areas of examiner criticism is about the concept of sound model risk management. Model validation has been a significant requirement of the regulators over the past several years and the expectation of validation is increasing. Regulatory examination bodies have added model specialists, released supervisory guidance, and increased regulatory enforcement actions related to sound and effective management of model risk. Improving the efficiency of implemented models is an ongoing exercise and this webinar walks through the components of a model validation and the keys to effective model risk management.

6:30 - 9:00 p.m. EXHIBIT HALL RECEPTION & THEME PARTY DINNER

Engage with the exhibitors and participate in PACB's innovation and creation stations. Bankers can work together to create an amazing conversation piece. It will be a fun, interactive, innovative evening.

AGENDA SEPTEMBER 24

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2022

7:15 - 8:30 a.m. DIRECTOR BREAKFAST/ SESSION

Panel Discussion:
FHLBank Pittsburgh and FHLBank Pittsburgh Directors

Facilitated by:
Winthrop Watson
President & CEO
FHLBank Pittsburgh

7:15 - 8:30 a.m. CEO BREAKFAST/SESSION

Thomas P. Hutton, Partner, Luse Gorman,
Washington, D.C.

Charles E. Marston, CPA, MST, President, Director of Tax Group, SR Snodgrass
Cranberry Township, PA

The presenters will provide an update on current "hot" topics, including Mergers & Acquisitions, Regulatory Relief, FinTech, Cannabis, Executive Compensation and Benefits, Tax and Accounting, and Risk Management. The presentation is interactive and commentary and questions from attendees are encouraged.

8:45 - 9:45 a.m. CONCURRENT SESSIONS

SESSION I: Issues in Cannabis Lending

Carter Frantz, Partner
Bybel Rutledge, LLP
Lemoyne, PA

The legal cannabis industry is here to stay both nationally and in Pennsylvania, and recreational legalization is on the rise. Lending to the legal cannabis industry is the next horizon. This session will provide an update for bank management and directors regarding the ongoing challenge of banking the marijuana industry nationally and in Pennsylvania. There are many risks in regard to lending to the cannabis industry, but there are ways to mitigate those risks to the much of same extent as in all other types of lending. Federal legislation is all but inevitable that will provide a safe harbor for banks to work with the legal cannabis industry and the question facing many banks is whether they want to create a bridgehead in the lending market ahead of that legislation. A look ahead to what is coming down the road from a regulatory perspective will wrap up the session.

SESSION II: Defining and Maximizing Customer Value: How to once and for all stop relying on price to win and retain customers.

Archie Kelly
Managing Principal, SalesPhysics
Charlotte, NC

Everyone says they want to create Value for their clients and customers but how many of us know how to define Value? This session solves the mystery of how to define Value and how to create maximum tangible Value for existing and prospective clients and customers. The session will allow community bankers to recognize the full extent of the Value they can create for clients and customers. This program will prepare their banks and bankers to win new relationships they previously believed could not be won from larger and potentially more technologically advanced competitors.

9:45 a.m. BEVERAGE BREAK

10:00 - 11:00 a.m. CONCURRENT SESSIONS

SESSION I:
Building Your Bank's Castle for Information Technology

Jeremy Burris
Principal, S.R. Snodgrass
Cranberry Township, PA

With the Log4J (an open-source logging library commonly used by apps and services commonly used across the internet) Vulnerability and other headlining vulnerabilities in 2021, 2022 should be a year where banks review their layered security approach and ensure that attackers would need to navigate through several layers of security to steal corporate or customer data. Through use of a castle-based analogy, defense-in-depth will be explored and discussed along with explaining how different layer's importance can change based on the type of attack (strengthening the need for all layers to be strong and secure).

SESSION II: The Magic Bullet to Thriving in the Midst of the Talent Shortage
Karen DiGioia
VP, Senior HR Consultant
Herbein Mosteller HR Solutions
Reading, PA

Having the right talent in place, is key to the success of your bank. This is no easy task today when the challenge to attract and retain talent is greater than at any time in recent history. Much of the conversation around meeting the challenge focuses on compensation – $15 an hour "minimum wage," hiring and stay bonuses, etc… While compensation is critical and certainly worth talking about, focusing strictly on compensation won't help you meet the challenge. How do you access your bank's risk points and determine what else needs to be done to best position your bank to attract and retain the talent it needs to succeed?

AFTERNOON FREE TO ENJOY DISNEY

6:30 - 7:15 p.m. CHAIRMAN'S RECEPTION

7:30 p.m. - MASQUERADE GALA AND ENTERTAINMENT

This year, wear your Masque for a fun and exciting purpose. We will have a masquerade on our own terms. Dress to impress, and don't forget your Masque.
